Rodolphe Demougeot

2019 Savigny-lès-Beaune 1er Cru Les Peuillets

Varietal(s)	Pinot Noir
Region	Burgundy, France
Short Summary	Rodolphe Demougeot has eight hectares in the Côte de Beaune, principally in Meursault and Pommard. Organic farming and the rhythm of the lunar cycle guide his vineyard and cellar work. His range of wines is direct and pure expressions of their terroirs with less “hand” in the wine than what occurs with many Burgundy growers. Chardonnay wines are whole cluster pressed, naturally fermented, and aged in 90% old and 10% new French oak barrels. Reds are spontaneously fermented (cement/steel) without stems for two to three weeks, with very light extractions. Typically aged in 70% old oak for higher tiers and 90-85% old oak for village appellation. Sulfur additions are made only just prior to bottling and light filtrations may be made for clarification.
Terroir	Upslope from Demougeot’s Savigny-les-Beaune lieu-dit, Les Bourgeots, is the premier cru, Les Peuillets. Further upslope from Les Peuillets is Les Marconnets, a fabulous premier cru with a topsoil composed of mostly micro-fractured limestone gravels and clay, which seems to render wines more muscular and square compared to the higher tones, grace and conviviality that Les Peuillets brings to the experience.
Cellar Notes	100% of the grapes are destemmed and placed in cement and stainless steel vats. The grape must is chilled down to eight degrees and then allowed to start a spontaneous fermentation that usually lasts about two to three weeks depending on the vintage conditions. They are lightly extracted using the infusion approach, which is to say very little is done to disturb the grapes during the fermentation and maceration. Once pressed, it’s settled in a tank overnight and gravity fed into into barrel the wines where they stay without racking until preparations for bottling. As he does with the white wines, the first sulfite addition is made at bottling and they are spared excess use of new oak during the aging.
