THE SOURCE MALAT KREMSTAL

2019 RIESLING, 'SILBERBICHL'

PRODUCER OVERVIEW

Ninth-generation winegrower, Michael Malat took the lead from his father, Gerald, at their Kremstal winery that dates to 1722. Kremstal is a climatic tug-of-war between eastern Pannonian warm winds and cold northern and western winds, and home to diverse soils on large terraces, from loess (wind-blown calcareous fine sands), gravels and various formations of limestone, mica-schist and granulite.

VINEYARD DETAILS

Ried Steinbühel 1ÖTW is on the right bank of the Danube. Planted in the 1990s, the vines face northeast at 210-250m on gentle terraces. The bedrock is mica schist and the topsoil a loam of mica schist, calcareous loess and limestone conglomerate.

CELLAR NOTES

Natural fermentation in stainless and aged in 2000L wood barrels for 6-8 months in old. First sulfites added after pressing. No fining or filtration.
