PRODUCER OVERVIEW

Iago Garrido may be destined to become one of Spain's most influential winegrowers. In 2014 this former professional soccer player buried an amphora filled with Treixadura in the middle of his granite vineyard inside Ribeiro's Avia River Valley. Initially convinced he had made a mistake with the discovery of a flor yeast veil, he later realized this errant shot actually hit a vein of gold that went on to define the direction of his wines. What makes Iago's wines special is not only that he welcomes the influence of flor, or that he is committed to biodynamic practices in his cellar and the vineyards he owns and the ones he works directly himself, and to only using a minuscule dose of sulfur in his wines, it's his razor-sharp attention to detail coupled with his openness to take in the ideas and opinions of others. His creative range is focused on indigenous Galician varieties with many different bottlings.

VINEYARD DETAILS

Parcela Eiravedra comes from 60-year-old Albariño vines in the Salnés Valley of Rías Baixas, located just 3km from the ocean at an altitude of 120m.

CELLAR NOTES

Natural fermentation in old oak at low temperatures and is aged for 10 months, partially under flor, in ancient 500-600L French and American oak barrels. No fining or filtration. Sulfites are added only at bottling, and the wine is unfined and unfiltered.
