

Fabio Zambolin

2021 Coste della Sesia, Rosso, 'Feldo'

Varietal(s)	50% Nebbiolo, 25% Vespolina, 25% Croatina
Region	Piedmont, Italy
Short Summary	Fabio began his project in 2010 with a parcel next to his grandparent's house and crafts his wines in their garage. While his organic vineyards are inside the Lessona DOC, his garage cantina is only a few meters outside of the legal boundary, which limits him to the Coste della Sesia appellation and makes for one of the best-priced non-Lessona, Lessona wines on the market. Lessona is composed of perhaps the most unique soil in the region, yellow and orange marine sands of volcanic origin.
Terroir Cellar Notes	Three week, natural fermentation without stems
Farming	Sustainable—Organic Certified—Biodynamic Certified—Uncertified Naturalist
Total SO2	None Added—Very Low—Low—Medium—High
