

REVEL WINE

SPRING 2023

Revel Wine represents a new generation of farmers, cider makers, winegrowers, and winemakers, many of whom work with natural, organic, or biodynamic practices in their vineyards and farms, and rely on spontaneous fermentations with wild yeasts. These are the things that we love to drink, that lead us to consider the soils where the fruit are grown, the honesty and sense of transparency with which they're made and, most importantly, their place at the table.

The distributed portfolio from Revel Wine is proud to be a member of 1% For The Planet, an organization of businesses who give one percent of their gross sales back to the environment.

âmevive wine

Âmevive, (pronounced as "ahm-veev", soulful, lively soul, living soul) is the new project from Alice Anderson, winemaker and farmer of the Ibarra-Young Vineyard in Los Olivos. Originally planted in 1971, Ibarra-Young is own rooted, and has been organic since 1993. Alice now employs regenerative and biodynamic practices as well.

Analemma Wines // OREGON

As growers and wine producers, Steven and Kris' primary goal is to produce fruit of individuality that reflects the place in which it is grown. In the cellar, they work methodically to minimize fingerprints on the wines. Through deliberate handling they strive to capture the essence of each of the vineyards that they farm.

Bethel Heights Vineyard // OREGON (Certified organic estate vineyard)

Established in 1977 Bethel Heights Vineyard continues to be a family operation. Second generation Ben Casteel grew up on the vineyard and is now the winemaker. Gnarly old vines, geologically complex hillside soils, and direct impact from Aeolian winds—all conspire to create highly energized wines.

Brooks Wine // OREGON (Demeter certified estate vineyard)

1cs 3cs 5cs

Founded in 1998, Brooks is a reflection of the visionary Jimi Brooks. His reverence for the land and vines made him a practitioner of organic and biodynamic farming.

Janie Brooks Heuck and winemaker Chris Williams' approach is simple: seek natural balance in the vineyard and cellar to show the true expression of terroir in their wines.

Cain Vineyard & Winery

Cain Vineyard & Winery overlooks the Napa Valley from the top of Spring Mountain in the western mountains of the Napa Valley. The estate vineyard is planted to the classic set of five varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Malbec, & Petit Verdot. They make three wines: Cain Cuvée, Cain Concept representing the classical benchlands of the Napa Valley, and our signature blend, Cain Five.

Corollary Wines // OREGON

Dan Diephouse and Jeanne Feldkamp are Corollary. They seek out marginal sites in Oregon that are especially suited to make sparkling wine. Through their cooler climates and slower ripening, these vineyards create more delicate wines of outstanding quality. They work with gifted growers and farmers who are committed to farming sustainably—whether organically, biodynamically, or LIVE certified. All their vineyards are herbicide free. All their wines age a minimum of six months in barrel and 30 months on the lees.

Domaine Magdalena // WASHINGTON (Demeter certified estate vineyard)1cs 3cs 5cs

In 2005 Maggie Hedges planted four acres of Cabernet Sauvignon in the Red Mountain AVA. Shortly thereafter they built their home on the same piece of land. The focus has always been on organic farming and in 2011 they became Demeter-certified Biodynamic. The first vintage of wine was made in 2014 and here we present the culmination of over 10 years of work and love.

Es Okay

Mike Lucia of Rootdown Wine Cellars created a second label to help growers find a home for their unsold fruit. Jokingly, the brand became Es Okay because at the end of the day, we know it's going to be, OK. Es Okay is designed to brighten your moment by over delivering on quality, while not denting your wallet. Each year they will make one white and one red that's better than "OK".

Fausse Piste // OREGON & WASHINGTON

Jesse Skiles is "Constantly looking for balance, definition and integrity, our wines are of the traditional mindset: native yeasts, lack of manipulation in the cellar, and a belief that finesse bests extraction. These are the wines I seek to produce - wines of a time and place...".

OUT OF STOCKFine Disregard Wine Co.

Fine Disregard Wine Co. is a two person effort committed to producing wines of transparency and authenticity. Their primary concern is seeking out interesting vineyards and working with the growers to farm those sites in the best manner they can. The resulting wines are undeniably, uniquely Californian and utterly distinctive.

Forlorn Hope Wines

Matthew Rorick believes strongly that site and farming produce all that they should like to find in a bottle of wine. He doesn't want to muddy the story, by adding water, yeast, acid or enzymes, that had nothing to do with what the vines put into each of the clusters.

Grosgrain Vineyards // WASHINGTON

In 2014, Matt and Kelly Austin left their careers as an attorney and fashion designer in California for a new life in the Pacific Northwest. After Matt returned to school to study enology and spent time working with several Washington wineries, they stumbled upon a small vineyard on the south side of Walla Walla. Planted with uncommon varieties, these 5 acres became Grosgrain Vineyards, a wine company dedicated to championing underdog grapes, sparkling wines, restrained reds, and sustainable farming practices.

Iruai

Started in 2013 by our own Chad Hinds, striving to find a voice for California Cabernet Franc and Chenin Blanc. In the Spring of 2018 he began planting a vineyard in the California Alps of Siskiyou County, using the permaculture methods laid out by Fukuoka. In the spirit of this new project he has begun experimenting with wine styles and varieties originating in the Alps of Europe. The wines seek to channel a sense of place with the goal of showcasing California's diversity.

Lady of the Sunshine

Gina Giugni is a second generation biodynamic farmer and winemaker with a focus on regenerative, organic, and biodynamic farming in pursuit of making natural wines that reflect the purity of the place they come from. Since 2018, Gina has been farming the 6.5 acre Chêne Vineyard, located in the Edna Valley appellation. Since her takeover, the vineyard earned Demeter biodynamic certification in 2020 and Lady of the Sunshine earned winery Demeter certification in 2021.

Scar of the Sea

Scar of the Sea are Mikey and Gina Giugni, out of San Luis Obispo, California. The ocean's presence has shaped their way of life along with the climate, soils, and geology of the vineyards in their region that fall under the spell of her fog each day. They focus on working with farmers who are instrumental in farming for the future and making wines with as little intervention as possible. Their wines are made with the intention to tell a story of where they come from, the people who farm them, and reflect each vintage under the California sun.

Slamdance Koöperatieve Wines – NEW!!! (ships winery direct)

1 cs 3cs 5cs

Slamdance is Daniel Callan, a young, ambitious winemaker who is intent on bringing historical identity back to Paso Robles. A native of Virginia, his passion for wine and history started while working part time at Sunset Hills Winery as a student at George Mason. Here Daniel found his calling for winemaking and a pull to learn more about the history of American winemaking and historical vine material. This led to harvests in Australia, New Zealand, California, and South Africa. It was South Africa that truly shaped Daniel's desire to make classically-styled wines with minimal intervention.

Southold Farm & Cellar // TEXAS

SFC is a winery and vineyard that started on the North Fork of Long Island and that now exists in Gillespie County, Texas. They are and always will be a winery whose sole mission is to make wines that speak of place and time, that thrill and delight their friends, family and themselves. As for this site, it is an attempt at transparency like their winemaking, which they hope to carry through into everything they do. And like the land, it is a work in progress, something that has and will continue to change over time.

Strade Bianche Wines // ITALY

Strade Bianche Wines is run by three friends. Jeremy and Bobby go all way back to the playground at Byrom elementary school. Andrea and Bobby became friends while he was living in Montepulciano. The company was formed organically around friendship and a shared passion for high-quality small production Italian wine.

While they strongly believe in organic or biodynamic farming, and wine produced without manipulation or additives in the cellar, to them the deeper connection is the story each wine tells. It is the story of the real people who passionate produce it, it is the story of that vintages weather, it is a story of the soil, land, and grape varieties that thrived in that small patch of land for centuries.

Selection Massale

The goal at Selection Massale is to import the best natural wines, period. They do not work in every region or try to fulfill every need, but rather bring what they believe to be the most exciting, precise, well-made natural wines available. Their selections come from small wineries. Their vigneroni work the land organically for the most part, biodynamically for some. All the wines are fermented naturally and made without cellar trickery or makeup. They favor clean, highly drinkable wines. They want their wines to be the first bottles emptied at the dinner table, but the longest remembered.

Pianora Vermouth Erborista, Montorfano, Brescia, Italy
Pianora, founded in 1986, is located on Montorfano, a hill of tectonic origin that marks the southern border of Franciacorta, characterized by the presence of the only steeply sloping terraced vineyards of this wine area. The vineyard is made up of 2 hectares in all, of which 1.5 are organically farmed vineyards and the remaining land dedicated orchard and grove crops to promote biodiversity. The ancient terraces are located at 280 meters above sea level; they are very steep (slope approx. 50%), and with an excellent southern exposure. The base wine is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, which is enriched with slow infusions of herbs and spices.

OUR CIDER SELECTIONS

Eden Specialty Ciders // VERMONT

In April 2007, Eleanor and Albert Leger bought an abandoned dairy farm in West Charleston, Vermont and got to work. Since then they have planted over 1,000 apple trees, created 5 vintages of Eden Ice Cider, and have introduced a new line of Orleans Aperitif Ciders, delicious on their own or blended in a cocktail.

Aaron Burr Cidery // NEW YORK

Aaron Burr Cidery in Wurtsboro, New York, is a small homesteading farm dating back to the early 1800s, a time when cider was hugely popular in the United States. They use their own cider-apples as well as other locally grown and foraged apples for to craft authentic American cider.

Troddenvale at Oakley Farm // VIRGINIA

Founded in 1834, Oakley is one of the original farms of the Warm Springs Valley. At an elevation of 2,400 feet above sea level, the farm is situated on top of a karst layer of exposed limestone. Through this porous valley an abundance of springs flow, braiding together on Oakley and forming a branch of the Warm Springs Run. Orchards have existed on the farm throughout its nearly 200 year history. As the last remaining trees fade, 4 acres of new plantings fuel the cider production. By planting 2,000 apple trees of 20 different varieties, Cornelia & Will hope to find out what makes sense for their distinctive, high-elevation growing climate.

Old Westminster Winery // MARYLAND

Old Westminster Winery is siblings Drew, Lisa, and Ashli. They took over the family property in 2009 with a goal of preserving the family farm by putting the land to work. They were abducted by the idea of planting a vineyard. They currently cultivate and produce about 2,500 cases of wine and cider of which 50% is estate.

Scar of the Sea

Scar of the Sea are Mikey and Gina Giugni, out of San Luis Obispo, California. The ocean's presence has shaped their way of life along with the climate, soils, and geology of the vineyards in their region that fall under the spell of her fog each day. They focus on working with farmers who are instrumental in farming for the future and making wines with as little intervention as possible. Their wines are made with the intention to tell a story of where they come from, the people who farm them, and reflect each vintage under the California sun.

Art & Science // OREGON

Art & Science was started by Dan Rinke & Kim Hamblin in 2011. The couple planted an orchard with 125 cider apple trees, of which there are 19 different varieties, however production from those trees is a couple years out. Most of the fruit for the current line up is gleaned from wild and/or abandoned trees.

WINES WE BROKER

All of the following producers are represented by us but we do not own the wines. This means that there are separate shipping minimums and discount structures for each producer. There are a few “families” where several “brands” are made by one producer. We have listed those wines together for ease of locating them.

Please note that we do work with several warehouses and there are instances where some wines do not combine for shipping. Those are pointed out alongside the producer’s name in the book.

Ashes & Diamonds

		1cs	3cs
Ashes & Diamonds is a love letter to Napa Valley as it was when it took the world stage in the 1960s. In homage to this golden era, winemakers Steve Matthiasson and Diana Snowden-Seysse, with proprietor Kashy Khaledi, adhere to an ethos of light-handed winemaking and transparency of terroir as a guiding light.

Broc Cellars

Broc Cellars was formed by Chris Brockway in 2002. Their goal in making wine is to bring out the natural expression of the grape by using only native fermentations. They source from an eclectic mix of grapes from all over California, working with vineyards as far south as Paso Robles and as far north as Mendocino. All of the vineyards are organically farmed and family owned.

Farm Cottage Wines – NEW!!!

Ryan Alfaro grew up on his parents' vineyard in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Being immersed in the family business his entire life, it was no surprise he developed a passion for wine. Ryan enrolled at UCLA to study Environmental Studies and Geography. In the midst of his undergrad education, he was able to study abroad in Dijon, France through UC Davis' Viticulture and Enology program. Upon finishing his undergrad studies at UCLA, Ryan decided to further his education at University of Auckland, New Zealand, completing a Post-Grad in Wine Science. He was privileged to work under renowned winemaker Adam Tolmach for a vintage before returning home to become head-winemaker at Alfaro Family Vineyards. While honing his skills at Alfaro Family Vineyards, Ryan decided to create his own label, Farm Cottage Wines.

Maître de Chai (May-TRUH de Shay)

Established in 2012, Maître de Chai is the personal project of Marty Winters and Alex Pitts. Together they look to make wines of high quality in a way that best showcases the sense of place where the grapes are grown and the personality of the vineyard. From the ground to the bottle, the character of the wine is the focus of our endeavor. They source grapes from unique and distinct single vineyards that are impeccably farmed here in California.

ORIXE SOTELO

Gustavo & Jackie Sotelo are the proprietors behind Orixé Sotelo, founded in Sonoma, California in 2019. Orixé (o-REE-shay) is a Galician word from Latin "origo" meaning: "beginning, source, birth, origin". Their name, Sotelo, originates in the coastal mountains of Galicia, Spain. O.S. is the lens through which they aspire to expand upon California's wine culture, specifically through the use of Spanish grape varieties.

Pence Ranch (Certified organic (CCOF) estate vineyards)1cs 3cs

Pence Ranch's philosophy is a non-interventionist, site-driven one. If their wines express typicity, it has much more to do with their terroir and viticulture than with anything they have done in the cellar. They strive for honesty and elegance in their wines, reflecting the beautiful landscape where their grapes are grown.

Precedent Wine

Nathan Kandler is a believer in the translational role of a winemaker. His goal is to foster the voice of the soil into your glass. Native yeasts, whole cluster fermentations, minimal sulfur, and the judicious use of well seasoned French oak are some of the techniques used.

Seabold Cellars

Seabold Cellars was established in the Monterey Bay region because they believe that cool-climate organic and sustainable vineyards produce balanced wines that showcase their origin more than their winemaking. During the year, more time is spent in vineyards than the winery. They produce non-interventionist, site-specific Burgundy and Rhône varieties, as seen through a California lens.

Sky Vineyards

Sky Vineyards is a 14 acre vineyard and small family winery nestled between the crown of Mt. Veeder and the expansive sky. Planted at an elevation of 2100' and on the eastern-facing hillside, the Zinfandel and Syrah grapevines ripen under full sun and fog-cooled evenings into intense berries. The reddish volcanic soil and unique physical characteristics of Sky produce a unique wine that reflects where it was grown and the care and attention it receives at every step of the process.

Terah Wine Co. – NEW!!!

Founded by native Californian Terah Bajjaleh, Terah Wine Co. works strictly with organic, and biodynamic vineyards from independent growers. Specifically, she wants to work with growers that care about the environment, the land, and the people they work with. The belief is that farming greatly dictates overall wine quality, which is always the focus for sourcing. The goal is to find unique microclimates and vineyard sites that are capable of showcasing outstanding varietal typicity while producing expressive, structured, balanced wines.

Ulloa Cellars

Nancy Ulloa is Ulloa Cellars. After moving to California from Guadalajara at the age of 12 Nancy moved to Paso Robles from the Bay Area in 2017 with the burning desire to learn the art of winemaking. For the last few years, she has gained an invaluable amount of knowledge from various respected winemakers/mentors who have eagerly welcomed her to this community. Fast forward 5 years, we are happy to team up with her for the release of her third vintage of Grüner Veltliner.

VESO Aperitifs – NEW!!!

VESO is breaking the mold of old-world aperitifs, and innovating on them at their winery in San Francisco. Their wine-based aperitifs are infused with fruit, spices and botanicals, resulting in approachable aperitifs that are delicious and sippable on their own (never syrupy or cloying), but complex enough to be mixed into spritzes or cocktails. Veso doesn't hide behind "secret recipes", and are fully transparent about their ingredients and where they come from. They never use "natural flavors" or dyes, instead preferring to use the real, raw ingredients to impart all of the flavors they seek - and their labels include all the ingredients they use.

Selection Massale

The goal at Selection Massale is to import the best natural wines, period. They do not work in every region or try to fulfill every need, but rather bring what they believe to be the most exciting, precise, well-made natural wines available. Their selections come from small wineries. Their vignerons work the land organically for the most part, biodynamically for some. All the wines are fermented naturally and made without cellar trickery or makeup. They favor clean, highly drinkable wines. They want their wines to be the first bottles emptied at the dinner table, but the longest remembered.

Licores Corderos, Surales Ecuador

Surales is a small hamlet in southern Ecuador, situated at approximately 4,000' in the mountains between Guayaquil and Cuenca. Remigio Cordero began his long career in the art of distillation at the age of 14. Now in his 80s, he is joined by his grandson, Ismael Cordero, on the family's organic estate. Caña Blanc is the name of the sugarcane variety farmed in this region, and this is what the family uses to make their Puro, the local name for unaged white rum. It is harvested by hand, crushed, fermented with native yeasts, and double distilled in a hand-built pot still. It is bottled at full proof.

Distillerie Patrick St. Surin Clairin Milot, Carrefour des Pères, Haiti

We are proud to introduce Patrick St. Surin who is making Clairin (the traditional rum of Haiti) in the most traditional way possible: harvesting his own sugarcane or using sugarcane syrup made in-house, native yeast fermentations, and distilling in small, alembic stills, the style of which have been in use since the 1500s. In essence, these spirits express the raw, natural beauty of Haiti — terroir, if you will — in the visceral way.

Distillerie Méles Augustin Normil, Pignon, Haiti

1cs 2cs solid

We're elated to introduce our second Clairin to the world. This is distilled by Boss Méles Augustin Normil in Pignon, which is on the central plateau almost smack dab in the center of the northern part of the country. Méles, originally a master craftsman specializing in metal working and engineering while building and maintaining cane presses (Boss is the term for someone at the absolute pinnacle of their trade), began distilling on the side as a hobby. He now sells quite a bit of Clairin on the local market, having become known for the local style that Pignon is famous for which employs the use of vinasse, or dunder (for those of you familiar with the Jamaican technique). For the uninitiated, this is simply the leftover of the distillation process which is put into a vat/hole in the ground and saved to help kickstart the next fermentation. Cane syrup from nearby producers is blended with water and vinasse for fermentation in large open top vats, and then distilled in a pot still and bottled by hand at full proof. It's bold, funky, and makes an incredible daiquiri..

Amaro Mondino, Traunstein, Bavaria, Germany

Mondino's master distiller, Hans, learned his craft during the 1960s in Italy. From there he brought the Amaro recipe to Bavaria. The old family recipe was brought to life again by his grandson Max together with his childhood friends Ferdinand, Florian, and Benedikt, using the traditional recipe updated to be purely organic, refined with regional ingredients, and low in sugar.
