

REVEL WINE

FALL 2024

Revel Wine represents a new generation of farmers, cider makers, distillers, winegrowers, and winemakers, many of whom work with natural, organic, or biodynamic practices in their vineyards and farms, and rely on spontaneous fermentations with wild yeasts. These are the things that we love to drink, that lead us to consider the soils where the fruit are grown, the honesty and sense of transparency with which they're made and, most importantly, their place at the table.

Bethel Heights Vineyard // OREGON (Certified organic estate vineyard)

Established in 1977 Bethel Heights Vineyard continues to be a family operation. Second generation Ben Casteel grew up on the vineyard and is now the winemaker. Gnarly old vines, geologically complex hillside soils, and direct impact from Æolian winds—all conspire to create highly energized wines.

Brooks Wine // OREGON (Demeter certified estate vineyard)

Founded in 1998, Brooks is a reflection of the visionary Jimi Brooks. His reverence for the land and vines made him a practitioner of organic and biodynamic farming. Janie Brooks Heuck and winemaker Claire Jarreau's approach is simple: seek natural balance in the vineyard and cellar to show the true expression of terroir in their wines.

Cain Vineyard & Winery

Cain Vineyard & Winery overlooks the Napa Valley from the top of Spring Mountain in the western mountains of the Napa Valley. The estate vineyard is planted to the classic set of five varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Malbec, & Petit Verdot. They make three wines: Cain Cuvée, Cain Concept representing the classical benchmarks of the Napa Valley, and our signature blend, Cain Five.

Cowhorn Vineyard & Garden // OREGON (Demeter certified estate vineyard)

Cowhorn Vineyard & Garden is a certified organic and Biodynamic vineyard and winery, located in the fertile Applegate Valley of southern Oregon, just a few miles north of the California border. The vineyard produces Rhône-style wines made exclusively from 100% estate-grown fruit cultivated across 25 planted acres. With a commitment to nature-focused farming and ecological harmony, Cowhorn produces site-specific wines that capture a unique sense of time and place.

Domaine La Garagista // VERMONT

"Ms. Heekin's wines are not intended to be complex works of art. They are direct and fresh, rooted in the notion that wine is food and belongs on the table, like bread or fruit." - Eric Asimov Three vineyards based on clay and limestone on Mt. Hunger, West Addison, and Vergennes are considered the "estate".

Domaine Magdalena // WASHINGTON (Demeter certified estate vineyard)

In 2005 Maggie Hedges planted four acres of Cabernet Sauvignon in the Red Mountain AVA. Shortly thereafter they built their home on the same piece of land. The focus has always been on organic farming and in 2011 they became Demeter-certified Biodynamic. The first vintage of wine was made in 2014 and here we present the culmination of over 13 years of work and love.

Erggelet Brothers

Julian and Sebastian Erggelet came to California in 2014 with just enough savings to cover two months' rent and buy a 'well used' Subaru. After gaining invaluable experience at wineries in Napa Valley and Contra Costa Co., they started making their own wine in 2015. In addition to sourcing fruit from the Del Barba and Cecchini Family vineyards their home vineyard has recently come on line with a focus on growing Malvasia Bianca, Xarel-lo, and Petit Manseng.

Es Okay

Mike Lucia of Rootdown Wine Cellars created a second label to help growers find a home for their unsold fruit. Jokingly, the brand became Es Okay because at the end of the day, we know it's going to be, OK. Es Okay is designed to brighten your moment by over delivering on quality, while not denting your wallet. Each year they will make one white and one red that's better than "OK".

Fine Disregard Wine Co.

Fine Disregard Wine Co. is a two person effort committed to producing wines of transparency and authenticity. Their primary concern is seeking out interesting vineyards and working with the growers to farm those sites in the best manner they can. The resulting wines are undeniably, uniquely Californian and utterly distinctive.

Forlorn Hope Wines

Matthew Rorick believes strongly that site and farming produce all that they should like to find in a bottle of wine. He doesn't want to muddy the story, by adding water, yeast, acid or enzymes, that had nothing to do with what the vines put into each of the clusters.

Hope Well Wine // OREGON

Hope Well is not simply the wish of an optimistic philosophy. Hope Well is an imperative. It is the insistence that hope without action is hope without hope. Hope Well is a noun AND a verb. Literally, Hope Well is a beautiful place where grower/winemaker Mimi Casteel lives and works.

Iruai

Started in 2013 by our own Chad Hinds, striving to find a voice for California Cabernet Franc and Chenin Blanc. In the Spring of 2018 he began planting a vineyard in the California Alps of Siskiyou County, using the permaculture methods laid out by Fukuoka. In the spirit of this new project he has begun experimenting with wine styles and varieties originating in the Alps of Europe. The wines seek to channel a sense of place with the goal of showcasing California's diversity.

Jolie-Laide Wines

The name Jolie-Laide translates loosely to Pretty-Ugly, a French term of endearment to describe something that is unconventionally beautiful. Founded originally by Scott Schultz, and later joined by his partner Jenny Schultz. Scott & Jenny's approach is a natural one, a less is more ethos.

loop de loop wines

High-altitude wines created by Julia Bailey Gulstine and Scott Gulstine. Their winery and vineyard are on an extinct shield volcano on the edge of the Cascade Mountain Range (Underwood Mountain) just over an hour from Portland. They make vintage specific wines that speak of the places they are grown – and these are some very special sites. Their own 9 acre Light Anthology vineyard is planted at 1250' in elevation, with volcanic, ashy-sandy loam soil on a 33° slope facing Southeast.

Pray/Tell Wines // OREGON

When Tom Caruso was a kid, he helped his grandfather make wine on a city sidewalk in Philadelphia; ironically on the corner of Oregon Avenue. They would source grapes from local farms and use a small hand crank destemmer and basket press (which he still has to this day). In adulthood, try as he might to find another career path, the inevitable reality sunk in when a few years into a job as a book editor in New York City, he decided to drop everything and focus on wine. From New York to Sonoma to the Willamette Valley, Tom has spent years working with some amazing winemakers, farmers, and mentors.

Sandlands

Sandlands is the personal project of Tegan Passalacqua. The line-up encompasses the forgotten classic California varieties, primarily grown in decomposed granite (sand), from regions and vineyards that have been farmed for many generations but have remained the outliers of California viticulture. Primarily head-trained, dry-farmed, and own rooted, the vineyards we work with harken back to California's roots of exploration, wonder, and hard work.

Scar of the Sea

Scar of the Sea are Mikey and Gina Giugni, out of San Luis Obispo, California. The ocean's presence has shaped their way of life along with the climate, soils, and geology of the vineyards in their region that fall under the spell of her fog each day. They focus on working with farmers who are instrumental in farming for the future and making wines with as little intervention as possible. Their wines are made with the intention to tell a story of where they come from, the people who farm them, and reflect each vintage under the California sun.

Slamdance Koöperatieve Wines SPECIAL ORDER (inquire into availability)

Slamdance is Daniel Callan, a young, ambitious winemaker who is intent on bringing historical identity back to Paso Robles. A native of Virginia, his passion for wine and history started while working part time at Sunset Hills Winery as a student at George Mason. Here Daniel found his calling for winemaking and a pull to learn more about the history of American winemaking and historical vine material. This led to harvests in Australia, New Zealand, California, and South Africa. It was South Africa that truly shaped Daniel's desire to make classically-styled wines with minimal intervention.

Southold Farm & Cellar // TEXAS

SFC is a winery and vineyard that started on the North Fork of Long Island and that now exists in Gillespie County, Texas. They are and always will be a winery whose sole mission is to make wines that speak of place and time, that thrill and delight their friends, family and themselves. As for this site, it is an attempt at transparency like their winemaking, which they hope to carry through into everything they do. And like the land, it is a work in progress, something that has and will continue to change over time.

Two Shepherds

Two Shepherds started as a one person micro winery in 2010. In 2015 William Allen was joined by his partner Karen Daenen as they moved into their own production facility in Windsor. William focuses on day to day wine making while Karen, the Chief Shepherdess, runs foot stomping, blending trials, marketing, accounting, design, and other key elements to the business. Two Shepherds specializes (primarily) in Rhone varieties from cool climate or old vine vineyards and unique plantings, made with minimal intervention.

Strade Bianche Wines // ITALY

Strade Bianche Wines is run by three friends. Jeremy and Bobby go all way back to the playground at Byrom elementary school. Andrea and Bobby became friends while Bobby was living in Montepulciano. The company was formed organically around friendship and a shared passion for high-quality small production Italian wine.

While they strongly believe in organic or biodynamic farming, and wine produced without manipulation or additives in the cellar, to them the deeper connection is the story each wine tells. It is the story of the real people who passionately produce it, it is the story of that vintage's weather, it is a story of the soil, land, and grape varieties that thrived in that small patch of land for centuries.

Selection Massale

The goal at Selection Massale is to import the best natural wines, period. They do not work in every region or try to fulfill every need, but rather bring what they believe to be the most exciting, precise, well-made natural wines available. Their selections come from small wineries. Their vignerons work the land organically for the most part, biodynamically for some. All the wines are fermented naturally and made without cellar trickery or makeup. They favor clean, highly drinkable wines. They want their wines to be the first bottles emptied at the dinner table, but the longest remembered.

Pianora Vermouth Erborista Montorfano, Brescia, Italy

Pianora, founded in 1986, is located on Montorfano, a hill of tectonic origin that marks the southern border of Franciacorta, characterized by the presence of the only steeply sloping terraced vineyards of this wine area. The vineyard is made up of 2 hectares in all, of which 1.5 are organically farmed vineyards and the remaining land dedicated orchard and grove crops to promote biodiversity. The ancient terraces are located at 280 meters above sea level; they are very steep (slope approx. 50%), and with an excellent southern exposure. The base wine is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, which is enriched with slow infusions of herbs and spices.

OUR CIDER SELECTIONS

Eden Specialty Ciders // VERMONT

In April 2007, Eleanor and Albert Leger bought an abandoned dairy farm in West Charleston, Vermont and got to work. Since then they have planted over 1,000 apple trees, created 5 vintages of Eden Ice Cider, and have introduced a new line of Orleans Aperitif Ciders, delicious on their own or blended in a cocktail.

Aaron Burr Cidery // NEW YORK

Aaron Burr Cidery in Wurtsboro, New York, is a small homesteading farm dating back to the early 1800s, a time when cider was hugely popular in the United States. They use their own cider-apples as well as other locally grown and foraged apples far to craft authentic American cider.

Drew Family Cellars (Northern California only)

Winemaker Jason Drew has expanded his offerings to include cider made from apples grown on their home farm in Elk. This dry-farmed, CCOF orchard consists of 60 year old trees on a mix of ancient oceanic and Franciscan series soils. Varieties include Gravensteins, Philo Golds, and Rhode Island Greenings.

Scar of the Sea

Scar of the Sea are Mikey and Gina Giugni, out of San Luis Obispo, California. The ocean's presence has shaped their way of life along with the climate, soils, and geology of the vineyards in their region that fall under the spell of her fog each day. They focus on working with farmers who are instrumental in farming for the future and making wines with as little intervention as possible. Their wines are made with the intention to tell a story of where they come from, the people who farm them, and reflect each vintage under the California sun.

WINES WE BROKER

All of the following producers are represented by us but we do not own the wines. This means that there are separate shipping minimums and discount structures for each producer. There are a few "families" where several "brands" are made by one producer. We have listed those wines together for ease of locating them.

Please note that we do work with several warehouses and there are instances where some wines do not combine for shipping. Those are pointed out alongside the producer's name in the book.

Ashes & Diamonds

		1cs	3cs
Ashes & Diamonds is a love letter to Napa Valley as it was when it took the world stage in the 1960s. In homage to this golden era, winemakers Steve Matthiasson and Diana Snowden-Seysse, with proprietor Kashy Khaledi, adhere to an ethos of light-handed winemaking and transparency of terroir as a guiding light.

Broc Cellars (Certified organic (CCOF) estate vineyard)

Broc Cellars was formed by Chris Brockway in 2002. Their goal in making wine is to bring out the natural expression of the grape by using only native fermentations. They source from an eclectic mix of grapes from all over California, working with vineyards as far south as Paso Robles and as far north as Mendocino where the Fox Hill vineyard is located which is now their estate vineyard. All of the vineyards are organically farmed and family owned.

Farm Cottage Wines

Ryan Alfaro grew up on his parents' vineyard in the Santa Cruz Mountains. After spending time in Dijon, France via UC Davis' Viticulture and Enology program Ryan finished his undergrad studies at UCLA. Ryan decided to do his post-grad work at the University of Auckland in Wine Science. Later he was privileged to work under renowned winemaker Adam Tolmach for a vintage before returning home to become head-winemaker at Alfaro Family Vineyards. While honing his skills there, Ryan decided to create Farm Cottage Wines.

Maître de Chai (May-TRUH de Shay)

Established in 2012, Maître de Chai is the personal project of Marty Winters and Alex Pitts. Together they look to make wines of high quality in a way that best showcases the sense of place where the grapes are grown and the personality of the vineyard. From the ground to the bottle, the character of the wine is the focus of our endeavor. They source grapes from unique and distinct single vineyards that are impeccably farmed here in California.

ORIXE SOTELO

Gustavo & Jackie Sotelo are the proprietors behind Orixe Sotelo, founded in Sonoma, California in 2019. Orixe (o-REE-shay) is a Galician word from Latin "origo" meaning: "beginning, source, birth, origin". Their name, Sotelo, originates in the coastal mountains of Galicia, Spain. O.S. is the lens through which they aspire to expand upon California's wine culture, specifically through the use of Spanish grape varieties.

Pence Vineyards & Winery (Certified organic (CCOF) estate vineyards; restaurant only) 1cs 3cs

Pence Vineyard's philosophy is a non-interventionist, site-driven one. If their wines express typicity, it has much more to do with their terroir and viticulture than with anything they have done in the cellar. They strive for honesty and elegance in their wines, reflecting the beautiful landscape where their grapes are grown.

Seabold Cellars

Seabold Cellars was established in the Monterey Bay region because they believe that cool-climate organic and sustainable vineyards produce balanced wines that showcase their origin more than their winemaking. During the year, more time is spent in vineyards than the winery. They produce non-interventionist, site-specific Burgundy and Rhône varieties, as seen through a California lens.

Sky Vineyards

Sky Vineyards is a 14 acre vineyard and small family winery nestled between the crown of Mt. Veeder and the expansive sky. Planted at an elevation of 2100' and on the eastern-facing hillside, the Zinfandel and Syrah grapevines ripen under full sun and fog-cooled evenings into intense berries. The reddish volcanic soil and unique physical characteristics of Sky produce a unique wine that reflects where it was grown and the care and attention it receives at every step of the process.

Tendu Wine Company

Started by Steve Matthiasson and Matthew Plympton in 2012, the idea behind this project was to offer up honest, affordable, crushable California wine at affordable prices. Steve sourced most of the fruit for these wines from the organically farmed JDM Organic Farm in the Dunnigan Hills of Yolo County.

Ulloa Cellars (oo-YO-ah)

Nancy Ulloa is Ulloa Cellars. After moving to California from Guadalajara at the age of 12 Nancy moved to Paso Robles from the Bay Area in 2017 with the burning desire to learn the art of winemaking. For the last few years, she has gained an invaluable amount of knowledge from various respected winemakers/mentors who have eagerly welcomed her to this community. Fast forward 6 years, we are happy to team up with her for the release of her fourth vintage of Grüner Veltliner.

VESO

VESO is breaking the mold of old-world aperitifs, and innovating on them at their winery in San Francisco. Their wine-based aperitifs are infused with fruit, spices and botanicals, resulting in approachable aperitifs that are delicious and sippable on their own (never syrupy or cloying), but complex enough to be mixed into spritzes or cocktails. Veso doesn't hide behind "secret recipes" and are fully transparent about their ingredients and where they come from. They never use "natural flavors" or dyes, instead preferring to use the real, raw ingredients to impart all of the flavors they seek - and their labels includes all the ingredients they use.

Ysidro (ee-SEE-dro) — NEW!!!

Saint Ysidro is the patron saint of farmers, gardeners, and workers. Co-Founders Monica, Seth, and Alex like to think of him as an early adopter of work/life balance — he embraced simple living, and valued being present to "what is" over the stresses and preoccupations of daily life. Quality time with other people the way he fueled his spiritual life. He performed miracles like striking his staff against the dry ground and bringing water to everyone in his community.

The co-founders live just a few blocks from each other off San Ysidro road, which runs through the heart of Montecito and connects the mountains to the sea. This road was the original inspiration behind the name.

Hobo Wine Company (see also page 20)

Domaine de la Damase (BIO certified estate vineyards)

Domaine de la Damase is a small estate, 12 ha, organically farmed and has been in conversion into agriculture biologique since 2011. They might have remained obscure to Americans, at least, if it weren't for Kenny Likitprakong of Hobo Wine Company who befriended the Latour family and imports some of their wines.

Selection Massale

The goal at Selection Massale is to import the best natural wines, period. They do not work in every region or try to fulfill every need, but rather bring what they believe to be the most exciting, precise, well-made natural wines available. Their selections come from small wineries. Their vigneron work the land organically for the most part, biodynamically for some. All the wines are fermented naturally and made without cellar trickery or makeup. They favor clean, highly drinkable wines. They want their wines to be the first bottles emptied at the dinner table, but the longest remembered.

Licores Corderos, Surales Ecuador

1cs 2cs solid

Surales is a small hamlet in southern Ecuador, situated at approximately 4,000' in the mountains between Guayaquil and Cuenca. Remigio Cordero began his long career in the art of distillation at the age of 14. Now in his 80s, he is joined by his grandson, Ismael Cordero, on the family's organic estate. Caña Blanc is the name of the sugarcane variety farmed in this region, and this is what the family uses to make their Puro, the local name for unaged white rum. It is harvested by hand, crushed, fermented with native yeasts, and double distilled in a hand-built pot still. It is bottled at full proof.

Puro de Surales Clairin-style Rum $334 322
(single bottle orders: $29.50/btl; must meet delivery minimum or pay delivery charge)

Distillerie Patrick St. Surin Clairin Milot, Carrefour des Pères, Haiti

1cs 2cs solid

We are proud to introduce Patrick St. Surin who is making Clairin (the traditional rum of Haiti) in the most traditional way possible: harvesting his own sugarcane or using sugarcane syrup made in-house, native yeast fermentations, and distilling in small, alembic stills, the style of which have been in use since the 1500s. In essence, these spirits express the raw, natural beauty of Haiti — terroir, if you will — in the visceral way.

Patrick St. Surin Clairin Milot Rum $334 322
(single bottle orders: $29.50/btl; must meet delivery minimum or pay delivery charge)

Distillerie Méles Augustín Normil, Pignon, Haiti

1cs 2cs solid

This is distilled by Boss Méles Augustín Normil in Pignon, which is on the central plateau almost smack dab in the center of the northern part of the country. Méles, originally a master craftsman specializing in metal working and engineering while building and maintaining cane presses (Boss is the term for someone at the absolute pinnacle of their trade), began distilling on the side as a hobby. He now sells quite a bit of Clairin on the local market, having become known for the local style that Pignon is famous for which employs the use of vinasse, or dunder (for those of you familiar with the Jamaican technique). For the uninitiated, this is simply the leftover of the distillation process which is put into a vat/hole in the ground and saved to help kickstart the next fermentation. Cane syrup from nearby producers is blended with water and vinasse for fermentation in large open top vats, and then distilled in a pot still and bottled by hand at full proof. It's bold, funky, and makes an incredible daiquiri.

Patrick St. Surin Clairin Milot Rum $334 322
(single bottle orders: $29.50/btl; must meet delivery minimum or pay delivery charge)

Amaro Mondino, Traunstein, Bavaria, Germany

1cs 2cs solid

Mondino's master distiller, Hans, learned his craft during the 1960s in Italy. From there he brought the Amaro recipe to Bavaria. The old family recipe was brought to life again by his grandson Max together with his childhood friends Ferdinand, Florian, and Benedikt, using the traditional recipe updated to be purely organic, refined with regional ingredients, and low in sugar.

Mondino Aperitivo (Amaro), Bavaria $170 155 6x700ml
